

ACCREDITATION

This is to certify that the degree programme

Master in Statistics

at the University of Hasselt

was accredited by the Society in September 2013

Graduates* from accredited programmes are entitled on application to award of the Society's qualification of

GRADUATE STATISTICIAN

and with a suitable period of approved professional training and experience may proceed to the full professional status of Chartered Statistician

Given under Seal of the Society

Director of Professional and Public Affairs

* The Course Director can advise as to exactly which cohorts are included. A transcript may be necessary. For undergraduate programmes, at least Second Class Honours is required.