

Design, Social Media and Technology to Foster Civic Self-Organisation

Thursday 21 May

09.30-10.00	WELCOME & COFFEE (Panopticon)
10.00-10.30	INTRODUCTION (Auditorium Louis Roppe)
10.30-11.30	KEY NOTE LECTURE 1 (Auditorium Louis Roppe) Andrea Botero Cabrera, Arki research group, Media Lab, Aalto University, Finland “Beyond participation, caring as an on-going design strategy” chair: Liesbeth Huybrechts
11.30-13.00 SESSION 1	TRACK 1 (FR-0.01) Neighbourhood mappings to trigger co-productive planning chair: Jihad Farah	TRACK 2 (FR-0.02) Designers as activists or managers in a 'creative' tension between informality and an institutional context chair: Andrew Vande Moere	TRACK 3 (FR-0.03) The role of documentation in long term perspectives chair: Liesbeth Huybrechts
	Reinout Kleinhans “See, Click, Forget. Ten broken promises of digital neighbourhood platforms” Tim Devos “Valuating narrative modes of reasoning in participatory planning methods” Carolina Vasilikou “City Sounding Board: empowering public participation in a data rich world”	Cesar Sierra, Andrea Botero Cabrera “From project to movement: design in 100en1dia (100 in 1 Day)” Sarah Martens “How to engage different actors in the on-going spatial transformations processes of a village” Mohamed Saleh “ The Role of Informality to Create Resilient Forms of Governance ”	Jessica Schoffelen “Documentation Games. A comparison between three games that foster documentation during the design process” Aristotelis Dimitrakopoulos “‘Autorganization’ and modes of collective autonomy: self-organization as collective autobiography” Barbara Roosen “The collaborative atlas, an experiment in supporting spatial capacity building”

13.00-14.30	LUNCH (Foyer) POSTERSESSION (Foyer) “Complexity theory for resilient cities” (Iowa State University, TUDelft)
14.30-15.30	KEY NOTE LECTURE 2 (Auditorium Louis Roppe) Eva Brandt, Center for Design Research, Danmarks Designskole, Danmark “Slowly drawing things together – co-constructing matters of concern in a codesign lab” chair: Liesbeth Huybrechts
15.30-16.00	COFFEE BREAK (Foyer)
16.00-17.30 SESSION 2	TRACK 1 (FR-0.01) Mass media to realign existing power relations chair: Reinout Kleinhans	TRACK 2 (FR-0.02) Designerly research, experiments and labs to curate spatial quality chair: Roel De Ridder
	Stephen Dobson “Memes and civic self-organisation: building and sustaining civic empowerment through the internet” Jose Carrasco “Sharing authorship and measuring influence in architectural trainings for urban dwellings and neighbouring communities” Liesbeth Huybrechts “Where spatial capacity building and spatial decision making meet. Publically debating participatory spatial planning via a newspaper”	Saba Golchehr, Naomi Bueno de Mesquita “Introducing digital methods for on-going community participation how social data can help inform designers to develop sustainable design interventions” Torange Khonsari “Communal garden and the liminal city” Jan Schreurs, Annette Kuhk “Design and scenario: building blocks for an ecological perspective on self-organization”
17.30	EVENT (Start: Panopticon – Z33)

Design, Social Media and Technology to Foster Civic Self-Organisation

Friday 22 May

09.00-10.30 SESSION 3	TRACK 1 (FR-0.01) Data mining & visualization to change behaviour chair: Oswald Devisch	TRACK 3 (FR-0.02) The role of play, stories and performances in long term perspectives / documentation chair: Jessica Schoffelen
	Ayman M Ismail “Community-based risk assessment: empowering communities to cope with urban risks” Salvatore Di Dio “How to track behaviours’ changes toward more sustainable mobility habits: the serious game of TrafficO₂” Bruno Meeus, Burak Pak “Counter-mapping urban ‘Arrival Neighbourhoods’ through Geoweb 2.0 in Brussels and Ghent”	Cristina Ampatzidou “The mechanics of playful participatory processes” Ben Hagenaaars “Action research as a framework to evaluate the immaterial impact of sustainable design research” Natacha Roussel “Almost Perfect: Self Quantification and the feminist theory of health studies”
10.30-11.00	COFFEE BREAK (Foyer)
11.00-12.30 SESSION 4	TRACK 1 (FR-0.01) Experiential technology to trigger social interaction chair: Burak Pak	TRACK 3 (FR-0.02) Reflections (on documentation to support) long term-perspectives chair: Katharina Gugerell
	Pablo Calderón “Challenging ‘sensible’ orders: on the participatory qualities of design interventions” Caroline Claus “Using a complex sound world for a participative dismantling and redefinition of the collective appropriation of industrial landscapes” Maximi Papathanasiou “Curated Routes: The project of developing visiting tracks in sub-urban landscape”	Pieter Vandenbroek “Myths of participatory planning in neighborhood development. The case of the Antwerp ‘First Quarter’” Magdalena Baborska-Narozny “Digitally networked action: developing self-organization in ‘weak-tie’ residential communities through a ‘Facebook group’” Els Leclercq “Color your Space: how digital media could improve the inclusiveness in the planning process”

12.30-14.00	LUNCH (Foyer) MEETING OF SESSION-CHAIRS (FR-0.01)
14.00-15.00	KEY NOTE LECTURE 3 (Auditorium Louis Roppe) Christopher Lindinger, Ars Electronica, Futurelab, Linz, Austria “Digital tools for civic participation” chair: Oswald Devisch
15.00-15.30	CLOSING OFF (Auditorium Louis Roppe) chairs: Oswald Devisch & Liesbeth Huybrechts
15.30	DRINKS (Foyer)