Fellowships for Graduate study 2016-2017 in the U.S.A.

The fellowships are outright grants:

- up to $48,000 for Master's programs ($18,000 for stipend and up to $30,000 for tuition and health insurance).

- up to $60,000 for Ph.D. programs ($20,000 for stipend and up to $40,000 for tuition and health insurance).

Applicants should have obtained their Bachelor's degree no earlier than January 1, 2012.

Fellows are expected to stay in the U.S.A. for a full academic year (nine months) at a top university.

Students who have means of their own to finance their studies in the U.S.A. may apply for an Honorary Fellowship of the Foundation.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. hold the Belgian nationality;
2. hold a Bachelor's or Master's degree at the time of activation of the fellowship;
3. submit an application to a graduate program (Master's or Ph.D.) in the U.S.A.;
4. submit official transcripts as evidence of an outstanding academic record and GRE test results (VR≥150, QR≥150, AW≥3.5)
5. have a good command of English and submit by November 15, 2015, a TOEFL iBT score of ≥100/120 or IELTS ≥ 7.5/9.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION:

Before October 31, 2015 for graduate study in the U.S.A. during the academic year 2016-2017.
