COMMISSION FOR EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE
between the United States of America, Belgium & Luxembourg

Fulbright awards fund Belgian, Luxembourgish, and European citizens to study, research, or lecture at an accredited U.S. institution for a period between three months and one academic year. Applicants who will travel to the United States without a Ph.D. are placed in the “Student” category and are required to remain in the U.S. for a minimum of four months; applicants who will have a Ph.D. by their time of departure are placed in the “Research” category and may remain for a minimum of three months. All departures must take place between August 1 of the current year and March 31 of the following year.

Benefits include:
- $2,000 to $30,000 based on merit and financial need. The money may be used to cover flights, tuition, living costs, etc.
- Sickness and accident insurance for grantees
- J-visa sponsorship for grantees and any accompanying dependents
- Active Fulbright networks to welcome them in the United States and as an alumnus in Belgium when they return

Application process:
- Complete online application by the deadline. Applications include:
  - Biographical information
  - Personal Statement/ Study Objectives or Research Proposal essays
  - Transcripts and diplomas
  - Three letters of recommendation
  - Letter of admission or letter of affiliation
- Mandatory in-person interview: in December, January, or February, depending on award
- Notification of award: in late-December or late-February, depending on award

Application Deadline
DECEMBER 1
- Student and Scholar awards in all fields – including L.L.M, MBA
- Foreign Language Teaching Assistantships
- Study of the United States Institutes for Secondary Teachers
- BOAS Harvard Scholarships
- Journalism Award - $30,000

*EU citizens whose projects relate to US-EU affairs, EU policy, or EU institutions should check their eligibility for the Fulbright-Schuman award (www.fulbrightschuman.eu) also administered by the Commission in Brussels. This award is valued at €2,000 or €3,000/month and a €2,000 relocation grant and has an application deadline of Dec. 1.

Royal Library, Boulevard de l'Empereur, 4 Keizerslaan, 1000 Brussels, Belgium
Tel: [+32] 2 519 57 72 - www.fulbright.be