Jumpstart your transition from the classroom to the workplace...

The Washington Center for Internships and Academic Seminars
In a recent survey, 98% of TWC interns said the program significantly strengthened their career prospects.

Since 1975, over 50,000 students from the U.S. and around the world have participated in our program.

The Internship
You can expect to work nearly full time at an internship that is tailored to your interests, skills and professional goals.

The Leadership Forum
Attend weekly events that include a speakers series, a career boot camp, a civic engagement project, a meeting on Capitol Hill and more.

The Academic Courses
TWC courses range across many academic disciplines, and you’ll select one that meets during one evening each week.

Networking and Social Activities
Take advantage of the countless opportunities D.C. has to offer after work hours and on weekends.

“I met with high-level officials, listened to the U.S. Vice President Joe Biden speak, attended events with American and Brazilian undersecretaries, and met CEOs of some of the U.S.’s biggest companies. Through these experiences, I also discovered a passion for investor relations.”
—João Pedro Roth, Universidade de Caxias do Sul

TWC Support Network
Many people are on hand to guide, support and educate you throughout your experience.
